Farmingville, NY – Recently, Councilman Loguercio visited the Boys & Girls Club of the Bellport Area to participate in the NYS Alliance of Boys & Girls Clubs Legislator Appreciation Day. He was invited to the club so the staff and children could thank him for his support of the club. Members of club’s service and leadership groups Youth Changers (9-12 years old) and Keystone Program (teens) presented the Councilman with a thank you poster and homemade cupcakes. Pictured left to right are Youth Development Professional Destiny Ivory; Adonis Lopez; Raleigh Pickens; Geovanni McKnight; Taniyah White and Youth Development Professional Serena Seaton.

Councilman Loguercio said, “The Boys and Girls Club is such an important part of the Bellport community and it’s always great to spend time with the staff and children. These are the leaders of tomorrow who set a good example among their peers and work together to make a difference.”
