Farmingville, NY - At the May 7 Town Board meeting, Councilman Kevin LaValle presented a Certificate of Appreciation to Dan Kenny, owner of Sweet Leaf Landscaping in Selden, for being an active member in the community and donating his landscaping services to maintain the Centereach Civic's "Hamlet of Centereach" sign. He was also recognized for his charitable activities, in particular for helping Carolyn Jordan of Selden, who had a damaged sprinkler system that Mr. Kenny repaired free of charge.

Councilman LaValle said, "Dan has a very successful business, but he continues to do so many things for the community without any fanfare. He is an important part of the fabric of our Town and I applaud his commitment to help make it a better place to live."
