Farmingville, NY - At a recent Town Board meeting, Councilman Dan Panico (second from left) and the Town Board recognized the Eastport South Manor Boys Volleyball Team and their coaches for capturing the Long Island Class B Boys Volleyball Championship. Under the guidance of Head Coach Bruce Stiriz, Assistant Coaches: Annette Schumacher, Gene Schumacher and John Bohnenblusch, Eastport South Manor beat Roslyn in the finals held at SCCC, advancing the team to the state tournament.

"I am very proud to honor the Eastport South Manor Boys Volleyball Team for their championship season," said Councilman Panico. "The hard work and dedication to their sport led to this outstanding achievement and will serve them well into the future."
