Farmingville, NY - At the September 30 town board meeting, Councilman Dan Panico (third from right) presented awards to the winners of the Home Run Derby that raised almost $2000 for Team Lily. The winners of the derby are pictured above with the Brookhaven Town Board as they accept their $50 Dicks Sporting Goods Gift Certificate prizes, a donation made by Councilman Panico.

The winner of the ages 17 and up category is Tim Sigerson (left), the winner of the ages 13-16 category is Nathan Sigerson (fifth from left) and the winner of the age 12 and under category is Matt Eiring (fourth from right). Councilman Panico congratulated the winners and thanked everyone who participated for their generous contribution of time, effort and donations.

All proceeds benefit Team Lily. Lily Roth was born on March 19, 2014 at St. Charles Hospital with a very rare skin disorder called Congenital Melanocytic Nevi, also known as CMN. Lily will need a number of surgeries and will have to travel thousands of miles to obtain treatment. The Roth family will pay about $80,000 for a series of surgeries over three years to remove the nevi, which are sensitive and carry increased risk of skin cancer. The Roths launched a fundraising campaign on July 6, and so far have raised $32,000 online, at events, and by selling "Team Lily" T-shirts for $10 each.
