Farmingville, NY - On June 10, 2014 Councilman Dan Panico, Supervisor Romaine and the town board presented certificates of appreciation to Mike Lubrano and Bob Guerrerio for their volunteer efforts to fix the broken headstone of Revolutionary General Nathaniel Woodhull at Woodhull Cemetery in Mastic Beach.

"The day before the parade when it became known that Nathaniel Woodhull's headstone was broken, Mr. Guerrerio and Mr. Lubrano stepped up and fixed the headstone to save the day. Their volunteer efforts are indicative of what America is all about and we all thank them for their work."
