

LIRR Cancels Weekend Work on William Floyd Parkway Crossing

posted on 3/3/2017 4:00:00 PM

Farmingville, NY – The Long Island Railroad announced today that they have canceled work on the William Floyd Parkway grade crossing that was scheduled for this weekend. They had planned to close the crossing to road and rail traffic from Friday evening through Sunday morning to install a new concrete grade pad. No future closing schedule has been announced.
