Farmingville, NY - On September 21, Supervisor Romaine (center) and Councilman Dan Panico (third from right) joined hundreds of local residents and firefighters from nearby communities to celebrate the 100th anniversary of the Eastport Fire Department. The day's festivities included a parade and barbecue in honor of the department which was established in 1913 and provides fire and emergency services for Eastport, Speonk and Remsenburg. Also pictured are County Legislator Jay Schneiderman (third from left) and Southampton Town Councilman Chris Nuzzi (second from right).
