Farmingville, NY - Brookhaven Town Supervisor Ed Romaine recently hosted a summit on gang activity and associated problems in the greater Bellport area. The meeting, which was held at Town Hall on August 22, featured Suffolk District Attorney Tom Spota, County Legislator Kate Browning, Town Council members Dan Panico and Constance Kepert, representatives from the Suffolk County Sheriff and Police, community leaders and a host of government agencies. The group discussed strategies where they can work together to combat the rise in gang membership in several communities within the Town of Brookhaven.
