

Councilwoman Walsh and Town Board Honor Selden Business Owner for Helping Family with Autistic Child

posted on 5/2/2013 10:58:07 AM

May 2, 2013

Pictured back row, left to right are Town Clerk Patricia Eddington, Councilwoman Jane Bonner, Councilman Steve Fiore-Rosenfeld, Councilwoman Kathleen Walsh, Jennifer Manduca, Supervisor Ed Romaine, Deputy Supervisor/Councilman Dan Panico, Councilman Tim Mazzei and Councilwoman Connie Kepert. Pictured front row are Anthony Otis and Emily Jenkins.

Farmingville, NY - At the April 23 Town Board meeting, Councilwoman Kathleen Walsh presented a Certificate of Appreciation to Jennifer Manduca for her participation in "April is Autism Awareness Month." Ms. Manduca, owner of DeAnthony Hair Salon in Selden, sold blue hair extensions to customers and donated 100% of the proceeds to a family in Selden with an Autistic child named Cody. The youngster is in need of a service dog and the proceeds will assist the family with the expense.

Councilwoman Walsh, who was so moved by the efforts of Jennifer and the staff at DeAnthony's, said, "Jennifer has always been involved assisting the community. This is just another example of the generous things she does. I am proud to present her with this certificate and I thank her on behalf of the community and families struggling with autism."

Division of Public Information * Office of the Supervisor

One Independence Hill • Farmingville • NY 11738 • Phone (631) 451-6595 • Fax (631) 451-6258