SUFFOLK COUNTY ASSOCIATION OF MUNICIPAL EMPLOYEES PRESENTS PANICO WITH A PROCLAMATION

Farmingville, NY - Recently, Brookhaven Town Councilman Dan Panico was honored by the William Floyd Community Summit and presented with a beautiful glass award entitled - Making a World of Difference.

"I am humbled and honored to have been chosen by the William Floyd Community Summit," commented Brookhaven Town Councilman Dan Panico. "I want to think that over the course of my tenure as a Town Councilman that I have raised the bar to provide exceptional constituent services to the residents of my district and this Town. I would also like to thank the Association of Municipal Employees and their President Mr. Daniel Farrell for honoring me with their Proclamation. My experience with the union leadership of AME has always been one of mutual respect and professionalism."
