

Councilman Foley Joins INTERFACE Volunteers to Prepare Thanksgiving Food Baskets for Needy Families

posted on 11/25/2015 12:30:00 PM

Farmingville, NY – On November 23, Councilman Neil Foley (sixth from right) joined volunteers at the Henrietta Acampora Senior Center in Blue Point to help prepare food baskets for needy Brookhaven Town families. The food was donated during the Town of Brookhaven Youth Bureau INTERFACE program's annual Thanksgiving Food Drive. The Youth Bureau INTERFACE Program is a partnership between good neighbors and the Town of Brookhaven, united in a common effort to provide help to Brookhaven's less fortunate residents all year round. Also pictured are Youth Bureau staff members Liz Derkevics and Josephine Lunde (fifth and third from right).

"The success of the Thanksgiving Food Drive really shows just how generous Brookhaven residents are," said Councilman Foley. "Thanks to the work of our Youth Bureau staff and volunteers, needy families across Brookhaven will enjoy a Thanksgiving meal in the true spirit of the holiday season."

For more information about the Town of Brookhaven Youth Bureau Interface Program and how you can volunteer, contact Josie Lunde at 451-8011 or visit www.brookhaven.org.

Division of Public Information * Office of the Supervisor

One Independence Hill • Farmingville • NY 11738 • Phone 631-451-6595