Farmingville, NY - Prior to the November 26 Town Board Meeting, newly elected Councilman Neil Foley (right) was sworn in at Brookhaven Town Hall by Town Clerk Donna Lent (left). Councilman Foley, a Blue Point resident, was voted into office on November 4, filling the seat formerly held by Timothy P. Mazzei, who stepped down in August and was elected to serve as a Suffolk County Court Judge.

Councilman Foley said, "I am happy to begin my term in office and honored to join Supervisor Romaine and my colleagues on the Board to serve the residents of the 5th Council District and all of Brookhaven Town. Under the Supervisor's leadership, the Town is moving in the right direction and we can look forward to better days ahead."

Supervisor Romaine said, "I welcome Councilman Foley to the Town Board and wish him the best of luck. He has all the qualities that are needed to succeed in the position and I anticipate that he will do a fine job for the people of Brookhaven Town."
