Farmingville, NY - At the March 26 Town Board meeting, Councilman Kevin LaValle honored Michael Sullivan, owner of Unique Homes in Ronkonkoma, as Business of the Month for February, and Lynn and Gerard Donohue, owners of JeJoJo Bagels in Centereach, for being named Business of the Month for March. Both businesses are located in Council District 3, represented by Councilman LaValle.

Councilman LaValle applauded Mr. Sullivan and Unique Homes for their service to the community and for helping to organize and manage several local community events, including the Ronkonkoma Clambake and Celebrity Softball game to benefit Making Strides for Cancer. The Councilman also thanked the Donohue's for their community activism, such as providing breakfast to volunteers at Centereach's annual street fairs and partnering with local churches to collect food at the end of the each day for distribution to the homeless and less fortunate.

Councilman LaValle said, "What these two businesses have in common is their dedication and outstanding service to the community. I am happy to recognize Michael, Lynn and Gerard for helping to make Brookhaven Town a better place to live, and wish them both continued success."
