Supervisor Romaine said, "I congratulate the incoming officers and the chiefs, and thank all the members of the Patchogue Fire Department for their service. They are real heroes who put themselves in harm's way to protect the lives of their neighbors."

Councilman Foley said, "I thank the chiefs and new officers for their service to the residents of Patchogue. These are extremely brave individuals and their courage and dedication are greatly appreciated."
