Farmingville, NY - In recognition of Earth Day, Supervisor Ed Romaine, Councilman Neil Foley and Councilman Dan Panico joined staff from the Town's Department of Environmental Protection for a clean-up of a section of the Patchogue River Watershed along Canaan Lake in Patchogue. The location is within a Town and County nature preserve. The group removed debris and trash including old tires, car parts, bottles and more. The clean-up was led by Anthony Graves, the Town's Chief Environmental Analyst. Pictured left to right are Councilman Foley, Environmental Protection staff member Luke Ormand, Jay Graves, Councilman Panico, Anthony Graves, Environmental Protection staff members Emily Goldner and Craig Strong, and Supervisor Romaine.
