Farmingville, NY - Supervisor Ed Romaine (center with sign), Councilman Neil Foley (back row, left) and Department of Waste Management Executive Assistant Frank Tassone (back row, right) joined members of the Holtsville Residents Association and Beautification Watch to kick-off the 8th Annual Great Brookhaven Cleanup. More than 2600 people participated in the clean up which was held on Saturday, May 16 at over 100 locations throughout Brookhaven Town. It was co-sponsored by the Town of Brookhaven's Department of Waste Management and Keep America Beautiful, Inc. The Annual Great Brookhaven Clean Up is part of a national effort that draws nearly 2.5 million volunteers in more than 15,000 communities across America who came together to pick up litter, renew parks, and clean miles of roadway, rivers, lakes, and seashore.
