Farmingville, NY - On Friday, July 17, Councilman Dan Panico will team up with Congressman Lee Zeldin to participate in his 5th Annual Basketball Challenge during the Town's Safe Summer Youth Program at the Mastic Athletic Complex. At the event, "Team Panico" will challenge local youth to 3 on 3 pick-up basketball games. His team will also include Councilman Neil Foley, Councilman Kevin LaValle, former Town Deputy Planning Commissioner Dave Genaway and Councilman Panico's wife, Deanna, who captained the Smithtown High School Girls Basketball Team. Councilman Panico and Congressman Zeldin are both William Floyd High School alumni.

"Every year the competition gets tougher and tougher, and we get older and older but everyone has a good time," said Councilman Panico. "I thank all my teammates for agreeing to participate and the Brookhaven Town Youth Bureau for going the extra mile to make this event a success. I also thank WJVC for their generous donation of prizes for the event."

The 5th Annual Basketball Challenge players must register in-person starting at 6:00 p.m. and the games start at 7:00 p.m. Contestants are chosen at random and prizes will be awarded to winning teams. The Mastic Athletic Complex is located on Francis Landau Place in Mastic, across the street from William Floyd High School. For more information, please call Councilman Panico's office at 451-6502.
