Farmingville, NY - On March 3, 2011, Councilman Dan Panico attended the Manorville Community Ambulance (MCA) Annual Installation dinner where he joined the Company in honoring many of their members including top responders for 2011.

This year Councilman Dan Panico (left) presented a road sign honoring James Hintze (right) for not only his 25th year with MCA but for having 25 Consecutive years as a Top Responder. He has responded to over 3700 calls in 25 years.

James became an EMT in 1973. He became an EMT - CC in 1989, a member of MCA in January 1987 and a life member in 1997. He has held many offices within MCA including training officer (twice), Director (twice), Chief (4 times) and Assistant Chief (3 times) and currently holds that office. He is the Department's OSHA Officer and the ALS Chair and has been on numerous other committees.

"Congratulations to all of the members of the MCA. We appreciate the courage, dedication and the commitment that each and every member makes to the community taking time away from their families and busy personal schedules," said Councilman Dan Panico.
