Farmingville, NY - Brookhaven Town Councilman Dan Panico thanked the Colonial Youth Organization for all of their efforts in working to clean up the community at their Annual Appreciation Evening last week.

"Colonial Youth Services has a longstanding commitment to the Mastic-Shirley community," commented Brookhaven Town Councilman Dan Panico. "The services they provide help make our communities cleaner and are all done for free as volunteers. I am continually impressed with their commitment and look forward to congratulating them next year again."
