Statement from Supervisor Mark Lesko...

"I commend Mastic Beach Village and praise them for their quick and complete response to the damage caused by Hurricane Irene. I can report that all roads are clear and storm debris has been removed. Thanks to the Mayor and Village Officials, the Mastic Beach Fire Department and Ambulance Company and the residents of Mastic Beach Village for their remarkable efforts during this extremely difficult clean-up and recovery operation."

Statement from Councilman Dan Panico...

"I join the Supervisor in commending the newly formed Mastic Beach Village, Fire Department and Ambulance Company for a terrific job on cleaning the streets and maintaining order in the village."
