Farmingville, NY - On June 28, 2011, Supervisor Mark Lesko, Receiver of Taxes Louis Marcoccia, and Councilman Dan Panico attended the Greenwood Village Senior Citizen Club luncheon, where they said thank you to the outgoing officers and welcomed the new officers of the club. Supervisor Mark Lesko presided over the swearing in ceremony of the new officers.

"I want to congratulate the outgoing officers for all of their hard work over the past year and wish the incoming officers the best of luck with their new responsibilities as officers of the Greenwood Village Senior Citizen's Club," said Supervisor Mark Lesko, "It was such a pleasure to talk to the residents of Greenwood Village at their annual luncheon and I know the new officers will continue to do good work for their community."

"I am honored to have the opportunity of sharing this happy occasion with the Greenwood Village Seniors," said Receiver of Taxes Louis Marcoccia. "We gather to celebrate the achievements of the club and wish its new officers all the best in the coming year. I look forward to seeing them again. Nothing can compare to meeting people and hearing their concerns first hand; I wish the officers and members of the club all the best."

"It was my pleasure to attend the Greenwood Village Senior Citizen Installation," commented Brookhaven Town Councilman Dan Panico. "Greenwood Village in Manorville is one of the tightest knit communities you will find in Brookhaven and I am thankful that I have had the opportunity to come to know a great many of the residents personally."
