Farmingville, NY - - On March 11, Brookhaven Town Supervisor Mark Lesko, Councilman Dan Panico, and Receiver of Taxes Lou Marcoccia were a part of the annual Moriches St. Patrick's Day Parade, hosted by the Moriches Chamber of Commerce. Also on hand were Suffolk County Legislators Kate M. Browning and Ed Romaine.

"It was a true honor to be a part of such a great tradition," said Supervisor Mark Lesko, "Events like the Moriches St. Patrick's Day Parade provide great opportunities for our residents to come out and celebrate our community. I thank everyone at the Moriches Chamber of Commerce for making this event possible."

Councilman Dan Panico said, "The annual Center Moriches St Patrick's Day Parade is another highlight in the beauty that Center Moriches has to offer. I congratulate everyone involved in this year's parade on a job very well done."

Crowds lined Main Street in Center Moriches to watch the parade go by. The parade featured floats from local organizations, fire departments, ambulance companies, local school bands, scout troops, antique automobiles, and Irish pipe bands.
