Farmingville, NY - On Sunday, June 12, Brookhaven Town Councilman Dan Panico joined with local realtors, builders and community members to officially open the Paramount Woods subdivision in Ridge.

"I was very happy to be part of a wonderful event with local builders, realtors and mortgage professionals to cut the ceremonial ribbon to commemorate the grand opening of a 79 home subdivision that included everything from a barbeque, face painting, stagecoach and even a bounce house," commented Brookhaven Town Councilman Dan Panico. "I am always looking to support local business and if my presence helps in anyway to jump-start our sputtering real estate economy then that would be a much needed benefit for us all"

"Councilman Panico is an ace! As one of the realtors selling the homes in this beautiful subdivision, I am pleased that he would take time on his Sunday to lend his notoriety for our ribbon cutting. I am proud that this subdivision is in his district because I know it will be taken care of and even more proud that he represents me personally on the town board. He is always there when you call on him for help and I cannot thank him enough," commented Alfred Walter of Century 21 Realty in Moriches.
