Farmingville, NY - On June 7, 2011 Councilman Dan Panico was on hand at the Mastic-Moriches-Shirley Community Library to congratulate ten residents of the Sixth Council District for obtaining United States Citizenship. All ten recipients participated in the citizenship classes organized by the Mastic-Moriches-Shirley Community Library's Literacy Project. At a ceremony organized by the Literacy Project, Councilman Panico addressed the honorees and presented each of them with a Certificate of Achievement.
