Farmingville, NY - Brookhaven Town Councilman Dan Panico recently honored scouts Brandon Clark and Francis Sommers in recognition of their having met the qualifications and achieving the prestigious rank of Eagle Scout - the highest rank in the Boy Scouts of America. Councilman Panico congratulated both men at a ceremony held at William Floyd Middle School in Moriches. Both young men are members of Troop 138.

"The life lessons that these fine young men learn through scouting will pay dividends for their futures," commented Brookhaven Town Councilman Dan Panico. "Both Brandon and Frank have emerged as leaders in their community and their Eagle Scout projects will endure for years to come."
