Farmingville, NY - At a recent Town Board meeting, Councilwoman Jane Bonner, Supervisor Mark Lesko and the Brookhaven Town Board recognized Scott Reh and Jeff Reh, two former Rocky Point High School and college star athletes who were recently inducted into the Suffolk Sports Hall of Fame. Both were honored for their outstanding achievements in Lacrosse and Soccer. "It's a real pleasure to have these two local athletes attend the Board meeting to accept the Town's accolades, they truly make Rocky Point proud," stated Councilwoman Jane Bonner.

"Scott and Jeff have accomplished so much on and off the field," said Supervisor Lesko. "Being inducted into the Suffolk Sports Hall of Fame is an honor that they can both be extremely proud of."

The Town Board also recognized inductees Jesse Jantzen, four-time state champion wrestler from Shoreham-Wading River, and Eric Brown of Coram, Longwood High School graduate and Suffolk County Community College baseball coach of 25 years.
