Farmingville, NY - On January 22, Councilman Dan Panico participated in the 10th Annual "Literacy For Everyone" fair hosted by Red Robin East Country Day School in Center Moriches. The event, consisting of a book fair, read-a-thon and guest speakers, aims to motivate children and parents to rediscover their passion for books and remind everyone of reading's lifelong benefits. Red Robin East Country Day School, in its 31st year of existence, serves as a source of pre-kindergarten education for the communities of Eastern Suffolk County.
