Farmingville, NY - At the December 21 Town Board meeting, the William Floyd High School Football Team was honored by the Brookhaven Town Board. The William Floyd Football Team, led by Head Coach Paul Longo, was recognized for winning the 2010 Suffolk County Division I championship. Coach Longo has guided the Colonials to six Suffolk County titles in the last 10 years.

"I congratulate the Colonials for continuing their winning tradition," said Supervisor Lesko. "Making it to number one is not easy. It takes a lot of discipline and hard work and I know these dedicated young men put in hundreds of hours of practice to become champions. I wish them luck in their future endeavors." Lesko played football in High School and College.

"The William Floyd Football program is a perennial powerhouse. This year was no exception as Floyd won Division One honors under the leadership of Coach Longo," commented Brookhaven Town Councilman Dan Panico. "As a Councilman and graduate of William Floyd it was my pleasure to honor the players and coaches at our Town Board meeting and look forward to a victorious season next year."

"Winning a championship takes an enormous and sustained effort over the course many months, even years. Head coach Joe Longo and the William Floyd Colonials have built, sustained and put forth a championship caliber team every year over the course of many years, and that is simply amazing. Congratulations on another title for William Floyd," stated Councilwoman Kepert.

"I would like to congratulate the players and coaches of William Floyd football for their hard work and commitment, culminating in outstanding championship seasons. These student athletes have earned the town's recognition and we wish them continued success in the future," stated Councilwoman Bonner.
