Farmingville, NY - On January 29, Supervisor Ed Romaine was a guest "teacher" at the Red, White and Blue Day event at Holy Angels Regional School in Patchogue. Supervisor Romaine addressed 6th, 7th and 8th grade classes and spoke about government and American history. He also gave the students a brief lesson on Brookhaven Town history and presented a proclamation to school Principal Michele Mulderrig and Saint Francis De Sales parish Pastor Father Tom Pers.

"As a former teacher, it's always fun to get back into the classroom and talk with students," said Supervisor Romaine, "These youngsters are the leaders of tomorrow and from what I saw at Holy Angels today, the future will be in good hands."
