Farmingville, NY - On February 21, Supervisor Ed Romaine attended an event at the Emporium in Patchogue held in honor of the Suffolk County Firefighters, EMS personnel and Auxiliary Police for their tireless efforts during Hurricane Sandy and Winter Storm Nemo. The event was sponsored by Suffolk County Executive Steve Bellone and the Suffolk County Police Department.

"This event was the perfect opportunity to honor the first responders for their heroic actions during two extraordinary weather emergencies," said Supervisor Romaine, "These brave men and women put themselves in harms way to help ensure the safety of people throughout Suffolk County and I thank them for their service on behalf of the all residents of Brookhaven Town."
