Farmingville, NY - On October 15, Councilman Dan Panico was a guest at the Knights of Columbus James V. Kavanaugh Council Annual Ball where he presented a proclamation to Saint Jude Parish Pastor, Father Gregory Yacyshyn, in recognition of the parish's work in the community and their service to the residents of the Mastic Beach area. The event was held at the Saint Jude Parish Center in Mastic Beach.

"Saint Jude's has played such an important role in Mastic Beach for so many years and I am pleased to be given the opportunity to honor them," said Councilman Panico. "Their compassion, leadership and benevolence are a guiding force in the community and it means a great deal to the residents that they serve."
