

Councilman Panico Honors William Floyd High School Mock Trial Team

posted on 5/21/2010 5:38:24 PM

Councilman Dan Panico and Supervisor Mark Lesko present certificates to the William Floyd High School Mock Trial Team at a recent Town Board meeting.

Farmingville, NY 2010 - Councilman Dan Panico, a graduate of William Floyd High School was given the opportunity to honor students from his alma mater's Mock Trial Team with certificates at a Town Board meeting on Tuesday, May 18th. The students have been recognized as both Long Island Regional and Suffolk County Champions during the 2010 New York State Bar Association Mock Trial Tournament. Their next challenge will be at the New York State Finals on May 23-25 in Albany where they will compete to become State Champions.

The William Floyd High School Mock Trial Team are Melissa Dubois, Erin Engelmann, Anthony Hernandez, Dakota King, Jamie Molfetto, Logan Murphy, Malea Otranto, Diana Ozoria, Catherine "Catie" Ryan, Chelsea Smart and Emily Vigliotta. The Teacher Coach is William Hennessy and Team Legal Advisor is Elizabeth Harrington, Esq.

"The Mock Trial team from William Floyd High School are champions in every sense of the word. These bright and hardworking students make us all proud. It was a pleasure to honor their accomplishments at our Town Board Meeting, and I wish them the very best as they compete in the State Finals." Stated Councilman Dan Panico, 6th Council District.

Division of Public Information * Office of the Supervisor

One Independence Hill • Farmingville • NY 11738 • Phone (631) 451-6595 • Fax (631) 451-6258