

Supervisor Romaine Attends Dedication Ceremony at Brookhaven Lab's New Interdisciplinary Science Building

posted on 4/11/2013 5:19:11 PM

April 11, 2013

Supervisor Ed Romaine (right) presents a Certificate of Congratulations to Brookhaven National Laboratory Director Doon Gibbs (left).

Farmingville, NY - Today, Supervisor Ed Romaine attended the Dedication Ceremony and Ribbon Cutting to celebrate the opening of the new Interdisciplinary Science Building at Brookhaven National Laboratory (BNL). During the event, the Supervisor joined other elected officials, dignitaries and guests in congratulating BNL Director Doon Gibbs on the opening of the new 87,700 square foot facility that houses high accuracy laboratories focusing on energy-related research and development to enable breakthroughs in the effective uses of renewable energy through improved conversion transmission and storage.

"Brookhaven Lab is such a valuable asset to the Town and I congratulate Director Gibbs on this new state-of-the-art facility," said Supervisor Romaine, "As a proponent of advancing renewable energy technology, I am very interested in what will be developed and how the new technology can be used right in the Lab's backyard here in Brookhaven Town."

Division of Public Information * Office of the Supervisor

One Independence Hill • Farmingville • NY 11738 • Phone (631) 451-6595 • Fax (631) 451-6258