Farmingville, NY - Supervisor Ed Romaine has announced that Channel 18 "On Demand" is now available on the Town's website at www.brookhaven.org. The new feature provides 24/7 online access to all programming currently airing on Brookhaven Cablevision Channel 18 including Town Board, Planning Board, Board of Zoning Appeals and Accessory Apartment Review Board meetings, Town Board Work Sessions, press conferences, special events and more. It will also archive recently broadcast programs so viewers can have access for easy viewing, anytime of day. Channel 18 'On Demand' will feature a user-friendly menu that viewers can scroll through and select the program they want to watch. A simple click and the show begins.

"There are over 86,000 unique visitors to the Town website every month," said Supervisor Romaine, "Channel 18 'On Demand' opens the door to many more people who can now follow local government at their own convenience, from virtually anywhere in the world. When I took office, establishing a more open and transparent government was a top priority and this new feature is a big step in the right direction."

Channel 18 is the Town's around the clock, public access channel available to Brookhaven Cablevision subscribers.
