Farmingville, NY - On May 16, Supervisor Ed Romaine presented a proclamation to Peconic Baykeeper Kevin McAllister in honor of being named "Environmentalist of the Year" by the North Fork Environmental Council (NFEC) for "his long-standing and continued efforts to protect our waters and the wildlife which subsists in it." Mr. McAllister, who received the award during a reception at Suffolk County Community College, is celebrating his 15th year as the Peconic Baykeeper. Supervisor Romaine is a past recipient of the award, having been honored in 2011. Pictured left to right are Supervisor Romaine, Kevin McAllister and NFEC President Bill Toedter.
