Farmingville, NY - On June 26, Supervisor Ed Romaine (right) honored the Ward Melville Patriots Boys Lacrosse team for winning the New York State Class A Championship. The Supervisor also presented team coach Mike Hoppey (left) with a proclamation commemorating the Patriots championship, their 22-0 season and for being ranked as the number one team in the country according to InsideLacrosse.com. The team won the championship game in a 16-4 victory over 15-time state champion West Genesee High School.

"I commend Coach Hoppey and the team for their achievement, outstanding spirit, dedication and sportsmanship," said Supervisor Romaine. "Winning a state championship is something that these boys and the entire student body will always remember with pride."
