Farmingville, NY - On September 8, Supervisor Ed Romaine (left) attended a ceremony held by the Farmingville Historical Society to celebrate the unveiling of a new roadside historic marker at the site of the Bald Hill Schoolhouse. The historic one-room schoolhouse was built in 1850 and served the children of the Farmingville area until 1929. During the event, Supervisor Romaine presented a proclamation in honor of the day's events to BJ Intini, President of the Farmingville Historical Society (right). The society was formed in 1992 to preserve and restore the schoolhouse.
