Farmingville, NY - On September 23, Supervisor Ed Romaine joined officials from Suffolk County, Smithtown and Islip Towns during the demolition of the long vacant Bavarian Inn located on the shore of Lake Ronkonkoma. The once popular restaurant and catering hall had been boarded up for many years, was covered with graffiti and was the target of vandals. It also sustained significant damage over time due to flooding, fire and break-ins.

"It's a shame that this once great restaurant turned into such a dangerous eyesore," said Supervisor Romaine. "The demolition will certainly improve the shoreline of this beautiful lake and make it safer for families to enjoy."
