Farmingville, NY - On September 23, Supervisor Ed Romaine (right) attended the unveiling of a monument dedicated to Nikola Tesla at the future site of the Tesla Science Center at Wardenclyffe in Shoreham. The ceremony was performed by H.E. Mr. Tomislav Nikolic, President of the Republic of Serbia. The event celebrated the legacy of Nikola Tesla, the Serbian American scientist and world renowned inventor whose laboratory was located at the site. William H. Terbo (left), a great nephew of Tesla, was a guest at the ceremony along with Jane Alcorn, President of the Tesla Science Center at Wardclyffe. The organization plans to build a museum and science center on the property.
