Farmingville, NY - On July 30, Supervisor Ed Romaine visited with the children enrolled in the Faith Baptist Church Youth Awareness Program in Gordon Heights. He spoke with the children and read a story that is part of the literacy-based summer reading program that serves children in kindergarten through second grade.

"As a former teacher, I know how important it is for youngsters to read during the summer months. I commend the members of the Faith Baptist Church for their support of this worthwhile program and for inviting me to spend some time with the children."
