Farmingville, NY - Supervisor Ed Romaine (second from left) attended the Court of Honor ceremony for William Koji who attained the rank of Eagle Scout, the highest rank in the Boy Scouts of America. The event was held at the Hibernian Hall in Selden. For his Eagle project, William built a handicap accessible flower bed in Bethel Hobbs Community Garden Farm in Centereach.

Supervisor Romaine said, "I commend William for achieving the rank of Eagle Scout. Young men like William are our future leaders and from what I can see, we will be in good hands."

To become an Eagle Scout, a scout must earn a minimum of 21 merit badges, demonstrate leadership, and perform an approved community service project.
