Farmingville, NY - Supervisor Ed Romaine has announced that this holiday season, the Medford Chamber of Commerce is participating in Brookhaven Town's INTERFACE Toys for Kids Drive. The coordination of the Medford Chamber and the Town has been spearheaded by Medford Multicare Center and Sam's Club, who volunteered to help in the coordination of the effort. Last year the INTERFACE Program was able to provide assistance to over 8,000 needy families in our community to make their holidays happier.

"Many of our neighbors are having trouble making ends meet and their children are not looking forward to a happy holiday season." said Supervisor Romaine. "I thank the Medford Chamber of Commerce for taking part in our INTERFACE Toy Drive. Their participation will help put smiles on the faces of children across Brookhaven Town."

Toy collection boxes are available through Friday, December 19 at the following locations:: 112 Superstore; Antonio's Gourmet Deli & Café; Boogie's Barber Shop; Chubs Meats; Fairfield Inn by Marriott; Genova's Pizza & Pastaria; Gianna's Pizzeria; Law Office of Jacoby & Jacoby; Light Speed Network Computer Repair, Little People's Center; McManus-Lorey Funeral Home; Medford Ambulance; Medford Fire Department; Medford Florist & Boutique; Medford Multicare Center; Medford Village Market; Metropolis Diner; Patchogue-Medford Library; Primo Custom Collision; Salon de Muse; Sam's Club; Servpro; The Learning Experience; Greg & Bill's Auto Collision and Nicole M. Cardiello, Esq. PC.

The Medford Chamber of Commerce will also be collecting toys at the Medford Holiday Parade and Tree Lighting on Sunday, December 7. The parade begins at 4:00 pm at Tremont Elementary School, proceeding north on Route 112 to Medford Memorial Park. Free hot cocoa and cookies will be served at the Medford Fire House.
