Supervisor Honored for Strong Record of Environmental Achievements

Farmingville, NY - Brookhaven Supervisor Ed Romaine was honored by the New York League of Conservation Voters (NYLCV) at their annual dinner on December 2. The Supervisor received an award from the group in recognition of his ongoing efforts to protect Long Island's environment, water quality and preparing our infrastructure for climate change. Pictured with Supervisor Romaine are NYLCV Long Island Chapter Board Chair Mitch Pally and NYLCV President Marcia Bystryn.
