At the event, which was held at Montfort Hall Parish Center at the Infant Jesus RC Church, the Supervisor presented proclamations in recognition of both achieving the rank of Eagle Scout. Daniel's Eagle Scout project involved constructing a lit sign surrounded by a brick enclosed garden on the front lawn of the Infant Jesus Roman Catholic Church in Port Jefferson. Christian's project was to build benches and rain/sun shelters over the baseball field dugouts at the Church of Saint Gerard Majella ball fields in Port Jefferson.

Supervisor Romaine said, "Congratulations to Daniel and Christian for completing their service projects and achieving the rank of Eagle Scout. These exceptional young men are a credit to the community and we will look to them to be our leaders of tomorrow."

Since the award was presented in 1912, no more than four percent of all Scouts have attained the rank of Eagle Scout, the highest rank attainable in the Boy Scouts of America (BSA). Since its introduction in 1911, the Eagle Scout rank has been earned by more than two million young men.
