Supervisor Romaine said, "Throughout our nation's history, military men and women have given their lives in defense of freedom around the world. We are here today because they sacrificed their lives so our country remains a beacon of liberty for the rest of the world."

"It was an honor to recognize the supreme sacrifice made by those who have fought and died to protect our liberty," said Councilman Panico. "Our country is great because of what they did and we will always be grateful to them and the loved ones they left behind."
