Farmingville, NY - On June 3, Supervisor Ed Romaine (left) and Councilwoman Cartright (right) attended the 105th birthday celebration for Lucy McKie (center), a Stony Brook resident and active member of the Stony Brook Senior Citizen Club at the New Village Recreation Center. Ms. McKie was born in 1910 when William Howard Taft was president, and turns 105 on June 9th. She was presented with a proclamation, serenaded by those in attendance with the classic happy birthday song. Supervisor Romaine led the singing and provided ice cream for all.

"It was an honor to join Lucy and her friends here at the Stony Brook Senior Center to celebrate this incredible milestone," said Supervisor Romaine. "Her energy and lively spirit is an inspirational to us."

Councilwoman Cartright said, "To think of the historical events Lucy has experienced is truly amazing. She is a living link to America's past and I was happy to join in the celebration of her 105th birthday."
