"Tony has happily committed himself to bettering our community for many years and the community is grateful for his work," the Councilwoman added.

The mission of the Vigiano Brothers Lodge #3436 is to honor their namesakes, John Vigiano II and Joseph Vigiano, two remarkable young men who grew up on Long Island. John served as a member of the New York Fire Department and Joseph served as a member of the New York City Police Department. They died as heroes who rushed into the Twin Towers at the World Trade Center on September 11, 2001 to help evacuate the building.
