Farmingville, NY – On October 17, Supervisor Ed Romaine (pictured) celebrated Barktoberfest at the Brookhaven Animal Shelter and Adoption Center. Food, refreshments and music were and many of the animal shelter dogs and cats were dressed in costumes. Attendees took advantage of the waived fees and adopted seven dogs and six cats during the event. Adoption fees will be waived for the rest of the month of October.

"Thanks to everyone that came out to celebrate Barktoberfest at the animal shelter," said Supervisor Romaine. "Our staff does such a great job taking care of the animals here and they work very hard to find homes for them. If you are looking for a pet, the animal shelter should be your first stop."

Those who are interested in adopting a pet should visit the Brookhaven Animal Shelter and Adoption Center located at 300 Horseblock Road in Brookhaven. It is open Monday, Tuesday and Friday from 9:30 a.m. to 4:00 p.m., Thursday from 9:30 a.m. to 8:00 p.m., Saturday from 10:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. and Sunday from 11:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. The shelter is closed on Wednesdays.
