Farmingville, NY – On January 14, Supervisor Ed Romaine and Councilwoman Jane Bonner hosted Cub Scout Pack 204 of Miller Place at Brookhaven Town Hall. They spoke to the scouts about the history of Brookhaven Town and the functions of Town Government. Supervisor Romaine stressed the importance of how decisions made by their local elected representatives impact their daily lives.

"I truly enjoyed speaking with the Cub Scouts who asked very good questions," said Supervisor Romaine. "They are the leaders of tomorrow who will contribute towards the betterment of our community," said Supervisor Romaine.

Councilwoman Bonner said, "The Cub Scouts is a great organization and it's always a pleasure to have them at Town Hall. It was refreshing to see how knowledgeable about history they were and their curiosity about town government."
