Farmingville, NY – On April 11, Supervisor Romaine and the Town Board hosted the fourth annual Mayors Day of Recognition for National Service event in Brookhaven Town Hall. At the event, volunteers from throughout the Town who are Foster Grandparents and Senior Citizen Companions were honored with Certificates of Appreciation. The annual Mayors Day of Recognition highlights the impact of volunteer service on the community. In Brookhaven Town, 54 Foster Grandparent volunteers serve in 15 schools. There are 39 Senior Companion volunteers serving the frail elderly throughout Suffolk County and several volunteers have been partnered with frail elderly in the Brookhaven area. Visit www.fedoforg.org for more information or to find out how you can volunteer.
